Kubu Kwena Lodge & River Estate

Kubu Kwena Lodge and River Estate, only 160km from Pretoria is regarded as one of the best kept fishing and overnight accommodation secrets on the banks of the mighty Olifants River near the famous Arabie Dam, (12km away) well known for its bass and kurper fishing. Kubu Kwena's abundance of wild life include hippos and crocodiles that breed naturally on islands in the river system and offers magnificent birdlife such as African fish eagles, African Finfoot, Gymnogene and African Jecana. In total 270 species were recorded and although the majority of anglers have an appetite for tigerfish, the bass and big blue bulls of Arabie Dam will soon let you forget about the 1400km trip to the Zambezi, the customs and malaria. Kubu Kwena Lodge is a secure place to stay which offers 15 luxuries air-conditioned self-catering log cabins and thatch chalets on the banks of the Olifants River. The huge 240m<sup>2</sup> wooden deck overlooks the river where visitors can witness hippos grazing at night and where crocodiles hunt. Kubu Kwena also now features a river estate with 136 approved full title stands that will go beyond your dreams, but it will remain a surprise for the future.
