Lakenvlei Forest Lodge.

Lakenvlei Forest Lodge, the ultimate escape from city life, nestles amid a lush 4500 hectare pine forest estate, about 10 km north of Belfast in the Eastern Highlands of Mpumalanga province.

This area is famous for its cool summers and frosty winters. Lakenvlei's thatched log chalets overlook a wetland area, which has been declared a Natural Heritage Site. The estate offers a tranquil and unsurpassed experience in nature. Various birds, including rare species such as the Crowned crane can be observed. The Lodge is about 230 km from Johannesburg and 200 km from Pretoria.

The Dullstroom and Belfast areas are synonymous with fly fishing.

The main lake in front of the lodge is well stocked with large Rainbow trout and fly fishing is done from sturdy bass boats. The second lake is also stocked with Large-mouthed black bass, and fly- or lure fishing can be done from the jetties.
